

Spotlight - November 2018

Greetings once again from Fiji, where God has now provided us with a place we're delighted to call home. Thanks to the friendly islanders and expat community He's surrounded us with, we're also finding ourselves settling in very quickly. If you would like to learn more about the location of our new home, check out the map above. Locate Suva and you've located us!

Sadly, as yet, we haven't found a church that we have felt able to return to for a second visit; it never ceases to surprise, and of course, disappoint us, how many church leaders depart from the Word and go their own way and of course, lead their congregations away, too. It's perhaps no coincidence then that the October TLC World messages addressed some of the misconceptions that exist with regard to scripture. If any of the topics below interest you, then do click to hear more, for it's vitally important to understand God's Word as He intended it to be understood.

Well, the big news this month, is that TLC World is now 5 years old. We turned 5 on 31st October and this year, we're celebrating by giving away copies of 'In Joy, Barbara xx' for Christmas (whilst stocks last). This true story of Barbara's journey with cancer is definitely a book worth reading before cancer strikes. It will be available for collection in several countries and locations, but if we don't have a collection point in your area, we'll actually mail a copy to you. To order your copy, email admin@thelittlechurchworld.org. God is good and our hearts have been full of thanksgiving of late. In fact, we've never forgotten the words of one of our students at Abu Dhabi University who said that until we thank the people who help us, we haven't thanked God. Sadly, thanksgiving, seems quite a rare commodity, but we can't add 'these days' because we know that Jesus found this, too, as Luke 17:15-19 tells of Him healing ten men from leprosy. It reads: One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him - and he was a Samaritan. Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Of course, we can thank God privately, but at TLC World, we're now making it possible for you to give public thanks, so that your thanksgiving can serve to encourage others and testify to God's goodness in one fell swoop. If you would like to serve Him in this way, be sure to visit the Prayer Room at <https://tlcwhk.com/prayer-room/> and post your thanks for answered prayer on the Thanksgiving Board. Note that there is a one time registration needed before you can post.

*Until next month, God bless you,
Jim & Elaine*

*I thank my God in all my remembrance of you. Philippians 1:3
